Map Showing Underground Coal Mines in Dubois County, Indiana

Explanation
- Deep Coal Mine Subsidence
- Coals, County_Underground_Coal_2010
- Coals, County_Underground_Total_2010
- Elements of Coal Seam Mined
- Mine Entry Type
- Area of Coal Seam Mined
- Mine Identification Number
- Depth to Coal (in feet)

Map Description
This map shows the location of underground coal mines in Dubois County, Indiana, which includes current mine locations.

Data Availability
Coal Mine data compilation complete as of December, 2011. Updated mine maps are collected annually from the Indiana Department of Natural Resources, Division of Reclamation and the Indiana Bureau of Mines. Some mine locations are approximate and adapted from information compiled by the Indiana Geological Survey, Indiana University, using data on-the-ground survey and historical analysis of a single coal mine entry. Other mined areas shown on this map were other mined areas shown on this map were adapted from information compiled by the Indiana Geological Survey, Indiana University, using data on-the-ground survey and historical analysis of a single coal mine entry. Other mined areas shown on this map were adapted from information compiled by the Indiana Geological Survey, Indiana University, using data on-the-ground survey and historical analysis of a single coal mine entry. Updated mine maps are collected annually from the Indiana Department of Natural Resources, Division of Reclamation and the Indiana Bureau of Mines. Some of these mined areas shown on the map were adapted from information compiled by the Indiana Geological Survey, Indiana University, using data on-the-ground survey and historical analysis of a single coal mine entry.

Disclaimer
This depiction of a mine entry consists of features related to the known location of a mine entry. Features related to the known location of a mine entry may be approximate and adapted from information compiled by the Indiana Geological Survey, Indiana University, using data on-the-ground survey and historical analysis of a single coal mine entry. Other mined areas shown on this map were adapted from information compiled by the Indiana Geological Survey, Indiana University, using data on-the-ground survey and historical analysis of a single coal mine entry.